Six persons die in weekend Texas traffic

Nice weekend weather drew Texans onto highways and streets where traffic accidents caused the majority of the violent deaths reported in The Associated Press' weekend count.

Six persons had died in traffic and three were shot to death. Another man was believed to have drowned.

The AP count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

Here's how some of the victims died:

Linda Fay Shipp, 30, of Irving died Saturday when the automobile carrying her struck a tree on a center median on a
